

Report on
76th Republic Day Celebration 2025

Organized by Institute of Vocational Studies on 24th January, 2025

The 76th Republic Day was celebrated at the Institute of Vocational Studies with unparalleled enthusiasm, pride, and fervor, as students and faculty came together to honor the nation's rich heritage and democratic values. This year's celebration was a grand display of unity in diversity, with students showcasing the vibrant cultural heritage of India through various performances.

The Republic Day celebrations began with a formal flag unfurling ceremony, presided over by the esteemed chief guest, Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal of the Institute of Vocational Studies. Mr. Gyanendra Shukla, Head, Comm IT and other faculty members became part of the ceremony. The ceremony was conducted with utmost respect and reverence for the national flag, marking the beginning of the day's festivities.

Following the flag hoisting, the cultural celebrations took place in the Awadh Auditorium, where the students displayed their artistic talents through a variety of performances. The students presented a beautiful array of songs, poetry, speeches, and dances, each representing the diverse culture of India. The performances not only highlighted the artistic skills of the students but also brought to life the spirit of unity and patriotism.

Students performed traditional dances from various regions of India. The audience was treated to lively performances to Haryanvi, Rajasthani, Gujarati folk songs, and much more. These performances showcased the cultural diversity and unity that is the hallmark of India.

Students recited poignant poetry in Hindi, Urdu, and English, evoking a sense of pride and love for the nation. Their speeches and poetry focused on the importance of Republic Day, the values enshrined in the Constitution of India, and the country's journey towards progress and equality.

The students also performed several patriotic songs that resonated with the spirit of the nation. These songs filled the auditorium with a sense of pride and unity as they celebrated India's sovereignty and democracy.

One of the most notable aspects of the celebration was the vivid portrayal of India's diverse cultural heritage. The performances allowed the audience to witness the colours, music, and traditions from across the country. From folk dances to poems in multiple languages, the Republic Day celebration truly represented the nation's unity in diversity.

The day ended with a sense of fulfillment and pride, with all participants and attendees cherishing the importance of the occasion. Dr. Mandira Gupta delivered an inspiring and motivational address to the students, encouraging them to embrace the values of the Republic and strive for excellence.

The Institute of Vocational Studies continues to uphold the values of the Republic Day celebrations and looks forward to organizing similar events in the future that foster unity and national pride.

