INSTITUTE OF VOCATIONAL STUDIES FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

This academic year has been an extraordinary challenge on account of COVID-19. However, the pandemic gave an opportunity world-wide to rethink and reassess the strategies for higher education. Times of crisis ought to inspire creativity, critical reflection, transformation, and renewal. In the new normal, the challenge is to adapt, regenerate, and position the college for a strong and sustainable future.

Genuine concern of our institution is to ensure students emotional growth along with intellectual excellence. This empowers them to develop their self-esteem, self-awareness and self-confidence. Our student population is multi-cultural and multi linguistic, hence we teach students, the importance of tolerance and respect for each other's language and culture. Discipline, values and integrity are the foundation of this Institution. Our vision is to produce conscientious, confident citizens of India who will go out into the world and make us proud.

'Awadh Radiance' Our college magazine, is a platform for our students to showcase their creative abilities, hidden dreams and aspirations for writing. Our magazine aims towards bringing out the latent talent in our students through articles, poems, quizzes and experiences. We at ACE encourage our students to put on their thinking caps and create....

DEPUTY CHIEF EDITOR'S MESSAGE

"The mind is not a vessel to be filled, but a fire to be kindled." Plutarch

Nurturing creativity and inspiring innovation are two of the key elements of a successful education, and a college magazine is the perfect amalgamation of both. It harnesses the creative energies of the academic community, and distils the essence of their inspired imagination in the most brilliant way possible. It shows the activities of students in the field of their extracurricular enthusiasm as well as in their academic ventures.

Hence, it gives me immense pleasure to introduce the 16th issue of Awadh Radiance in which linguistic as well as artistic creativity is being showcased by the students. COVID19 has provided a blank canvas to students on which they have tried to splash colours of their thoughts.

I would like to express my gratitude to Mr. Naushad Khalid, Managing Trustee, Mr. Khalid Hashmi, Director ACE, Prof. Ilyas Hussain, Director Academics and Mr. Rizwan Ahmad for their continuous support and encouragement.

A special thanks to our Principal (IVS) Dr. Mandira Gupta who have made enormous contribution towards making this magazine a success. My sincere thanks to my Editorial Team for the support to make this magazine standout.

Last but not the least I congratulate the faculty members and students of all faculties who used various mediums of expression to present their ideas. As long as our ideas are expressed and thoughts kindled we can be sure of learning, as everything begins with an idea.

I hope the magazine thrills all our readers and keep them spell bound till last page.

Happy Reading!

Deputy Chief Editor (B.Ed)

DEPARTMENTAL EDITOR MESSAGE)

Another year has passed since we saw the last issue of the Annual Magazine of Institute of Vocational Studies, New Delhi “Awadh Radiance” 2021. I am delighted to know that the college is bringing out the new edition of Awadh Radiance-2022 on the theme “THE SILVER LINING”

“If you wanted to build a ship, then do not herd people together in order to assign them with certain tasks. Instead, teach them to dwell on the immensity of the sea.” – Antoine de Saint-Exupery.

In the present time there are many challenges that a teacher has to face. It is important for all of us to formulate ways to solve our problems ourselves instead of looking towards somebody to tell us what is to be done and this is what our education system demands from us today. Teachers, Students, Administrators and, in fact, each one of us needs to be futuristic, innovative and experimental in our outlook and strategies. The burden lies on the teacher educators, especially, to suffice to the larger goals of education and society.

This magazine inspires our students to develop positively in all way of life. In this, students have presented their thinking about new problems of change in the form of positive and exemplary medium such as articles, ideas, poems and posters.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to our respected Principal Dr. Mandira Gupta, all the faculty members and all the members associated with the magazine

My good wishes are always there with you.

Being enrolled in Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) was definitely a roller coaster ride. Doing B.Ed. from Institute of Vocational Studies provides an opportunity to learn in three different areas, which is essential for success. You learn from lecturers, you learn how to interact with people and the most important that you learn about yourself. These areas have been examined in both the class room environment and in a real world situation. I found the Institute of Vocational Studies to be a milestone in my professional and personal life. It has been a fantastic experience. I found the quality of the academic staff at par. The curriculum is well organized and designed to combine academic teaching with learning experiences. This combination really worked well for me and I feel that I have developed knowledge, skills and personal competencies such as self-awareness, presentations, teamwork, and leadership.

The College has a great reputation in terms of result and success rate because of the dedicated, supportive and motivated staff. The staff enables students to accomplish their dreams!

Dr. Mandira Gupta ma'am is in my view a brilliant Principal and an excellent motivator. She always ready to help their students even out of the college premises.

It is really one of the best Colleges. I couldn't have asked for more; the teachers were so helpful to me, whenever there was anything I needed or didn't understand they were always there without delay. They made me feel right at home. By the end of year we almost become friends. The facilities were just amazing and the place is homely. The Institute of Vocational Studies experience was definitely one that I will never forget. It was possibly one of the best decisions of my life and I'm so grateful that I had the opportunity to learn. "I just want to thank you all for all your help extended to me and my classmates throughout the year. I can't express in words how much I appreciate it. It has been a wonderful year and I will always cherish it.

A RAG OR A GOLD : - IT'S UP TO YOU!

Too many people miss the silver lining because they are expecting gold" by Maurice Setter.

It's a mockery that in the quest of gold, we turned into a beggar, beggar of morality, beggar of happiness, beggar of life. We were running into a rat race in the quest and grabbing of money and happiness, but it seems it's a never-ending process. In this period of globalization where everyone is so-called busy, they have lost how to live.

But one such day, around these happenings in the world, someone said STOP. It's not the person, but us somewhere in the heart. In the disguise of pandemic, everything has shut down. Everything has stopped. We are at home with a fear of a disease, which is threatening and dreadful. Some of us have lost our dear ones and some of us find our dear ones. In this process of loss and find, we excavate a new thing. We find a new identity in us. A new hobby and a sense of togetherness in our families.

The one who hadn't dined with their mothers and fathers since ages now made strong bonding with our dear ones.

It makes us hopeful, and doubtful, its life! This is really exciting and energetic. Furthermore, it carries peace and bliss.

Now we may not have money or a little money, that's ok, but without happiness and our loved ones, life is nothing.

Let's follow our passion, follow our love and a place where your soul enjoys and dances. In this new era, we may be a rag today but will become gold one day. Not in quantity but of quality. Sad certainly but still happy.

OUR WORLD IN COVID

Today and for the past many months, we are surviving the most intriguing and critical phase humankind has ever experienced. People who are going to work are contributing to their family and balancing themselves on a thin rope; one wrong step and, you may never breathe again. This catastrophic phase has brought many people back to their ground who were once enjoying the privileges of richness and lavish lifestyle. But the ones who were standing firmly on their feet turned out to be living on their knees. The whole human population got affected due to this hazardous sickness. It was not easy for any nation to create the vaccine, but cooperation among countries and health organizations provided more knowledge about the disease to people living around the world. Many countries are implementing procedures and measures to prevent the spreading of the disease. But the survival of every person is getting affected every day.

The faithful warriors are going out to work and making sure that their family has enough food on the table. They are not afraid of anything as they are risking themselves where illness can meet them at any point. Their family is the most vital regardless of any problems they face. Not everyone can do it, but someone has to take up the initiative to look out for their people. We hear about doctors, teachers, and soldiers getting up every day and doing their job. These people are performing the most significant roles in our lives. If our parents or even our neighbours work every day, we should not just ignore them but get inspired and thank them for what they are doing.

These heroes are around us, but sometimes we overlook the people who are now struggling even more to earn bread. Daily laborers working errands while some are moving from place to place in search of jobs during the pandemic brings a load of risk to their life. If you observe, the mendicants on the road are now less because they headed back to their villages to be safe and hoping to get a job there. So, instead of just chitchatting about it, we can help the people around us to find more ways to contribute to society and try to make it a better place for everyone. The people have now entered the online realm. Some People living in different parts of the world do not have the knowledge or any idea about the online world. Some people do not know about social platforms like Facebook, Instagram, etc. As they had no interest and even their work was not online. Now people like them are accompanied by pressure and helplessness. Everything is getting shifted to the online system. It is also creating a lot of problems for people around the world.

Only 48 percent of the human population has internet access, while the other portion has not even met the proper resources to live a decent life.

Among that 48 percent, we have people who are incapable of using the internet, and some people have less connectivity, which has no significance. With all this turmoil, the future in this modern world gets affected. With no resources, one faces a burden on education and desires.

Look around yourself and help people as much as you can. The karma says, "You get what you give." Surviving this pandemic, I think, we all are realizing that what we have given to this earth.

We all can come together to share our views, solutions, and ideas to defeat these problems but, in the end, what we want will not be possible if we do not progress. Mother nature did and will nourish even without us. So, while we are here, let's take some initiatives towards this beautiful arcadia to make it more blissful and peaceful for every living being who shall live here.

THE SKY OF NO LIMITS

With feathers flinging to the highest peak,
I shall rise to the top of the world
I will glance at the world with my twinkling wonder,
From mountains, seas, oceans my heart would wonder,
I would flaunt that it's my universe,
A photograph of our god's garden,
With the flourishing beauty of seven wonders,
I will see with see its magnificent praising thunders,
My hands might not stop from applause till I am old,
My childness won't stop till I am tired,
I will praise every beautiful reflection that describes my earth,
I will worship my god who is artist of my drawing book,
But it will happen if I am not slaughtered for my wings,
It will happen if I don't cry for life,
It will happen if humans don't destroy my nest,
It will happen if your greed for flesh will end,
It will happen if you make the universe's sand
Turn into colourful natural bands.

DIL SE DHANYAVAAD

(To all the Doctors, Nurses, Veterinarian, Police, Army, NGO Volunteers, Government Officials, Media, MCF Employees, Cleaners, Vendors, Guards, philanthropist and Prime Minister)

डर की इस राह पर सुरक्षाका भी है एक पेहरा;
दर्द समझ कर तो देखो मतलब है बहुत गहरा;
इंसानों के रूप में भगवान ने लिया है नया चेहरा;
धन्यवाद करके तो देखो, मिट्टी का बर्तन भी कराएंगे सुनहरा।।

हर एक जान बचाने की कोशिश है उनकी पूरी जारी;
अब और घर नहीं बैठ सकते ये शिकायत है हमारी;
जरा उनसे तो पूछो, "उनके कष्ट है कितने भारी",
धन्यवाद करके तो देखो, जिंदगी भर बन के रहेंगे तुम्हारे आभारी।।

उनका घर भी देश, परिवार भी देश;
मान रहे हैं सरकार का हर आदेश;
"घर रहो, बस घर पर ही रहो", यही है उनका एकमात्र संदेश;
धन्यवाद करके तो देखो, आपके स्वास्थ्य जीवन के लिए बन जाएंगे अवशेष;

काम के लिए कभी कभी उन्हें बनना पड़ता है कठोर;
उसमे भी फायदा है, क्योंकि बाहर है महामारी का आदमखोर;
स्तिथि ऐसी है की वो भी हो गया है थोड़ा कमजोर,
फिर भी धन्यवाद करके तो देखो,
देश के हर नागरिक की सुरक्षा के लिए लगा देंगे बाजु-कातिल का जोर।।

TOGETHER IN A SUDDEN STRANGENESS

It was just another day,
But there was something different
Or was I thinking that way?

The air was not pure
Was it pollution?
Oh yes! I was so sure.

Mum, Dad, Brother and I,
Were all at one place
With news on and keeping an eye.

Yes, there was some kind of pollution,
But something very unusual,
Contagious and deadly.
That too without any firm solution.

Strangeness was all around,
Shops, transport, the world was shut down.
At our homes, we all were bound.
We had nothing to do, nowhere to go around.

Something was very positive,
The time spent together
And how we all made it productive!

Learnt new skills, followed our heart
Although, the time was tough
And things were falling apart.

But what matters the most is
That we all were together in this sudden strangeness!

CRISIS OF VISIBILITY AND AUDIBILITY OFFLINE MODE

Politics of Visibility and Audibility Am I “visible” and “audible” is the phrase we often hear in this era of online education. The concept of online education is not new though, but it got vast public acceptance during the pandemic. Visibility and Audibility have always been the major question in the field of education, be it online or offline. What I am trying to portray through these two words is double deprivation faced by minorities in this so-called inclusive model of governance.

Crisis of Visibility and Audibility – Offline Mode

First group is ‘Dalit’, and other ‘SCs’ and ‘STs’ which have been encumbered since ages due to Brahminical autonomy. In the context of visibility via offline mode, these deprived sections are often forced to seat themselves either at the outside of classroom or at the end of classroom to avoid any physical contact with upper castes body. Barrington Moore, an American political sociologist, described these untouchable bodies as walking chariots. Through this Varna based segregation they have modicum visibility in the so called ‘inclusive classroom’. In the context of audibility, the medium of teaching in rural areas is still ‘Sanskritized’ on which there is an autonomy claimed by Brahmins. This left Dalits in the bubble of learning deprivation rather than learning loss, because Sanskrit isn’t the language which is commonly spoken in the house of Dalits.

Another group, which I am addressing is ‘Women’. Personal is Political, a slogan used as a resistance in second wave of feminism. This slogan depicts the replica of women’s personal situation into a public situation. Women often face rejection at the higher jobs’ post, because women meant for menial work like their household chores. Like this there are various examples which questions the visibility and audibility in the public space and deep-rooted gender inequality.

Crisis of Visibility and Audibility – Online Mode

In the context of ‘Dalit’ and ‘SCs’ or ‘STs’, analysis of the National Sample Survey Office data on social consumption of education (2017-18) informs us only 2% of students from the poorest income groups have access to computer with internet, only 3% have access to computer at home and 10% have access to internet through any of the digital services. With these established stats one could easily chalk out the learning deprivation faced by these groups. In the context of ‘Women’ CIVILS DAILY (2020) reported that India has become the world’s highest gender gap in access to technology. Only 21% of women in India are mobile internet users, according to Global System for Mobile Communications Association’s 2020 mobile gender gap report, while 42% of men have internet access. The male-female disparity in mobile usage exacerbates inequalities for women in access to information, economic opportunities and networking. Adding to this woman often share an unequal burden of domestic responsibility which creates less flexibility for them to attend online classes. Aforementioned stats and reality lucidly shed light upon double learning deprivation faced by these two groups in this pandemic. Moreover, what we are witnessing today is the total absence of alternative sociality which educational institutions offer. Also, the classrooms offer radical and transformant space to many which is also negligible now.

Silver Lining

A silver line will only become a line of hope when we start acknowledging that the visual politics of university has been shrunk to a few inches of screen. And when we dismantle the catchphrase of “learning from the comfort of one’s home”, because it wrongly assumes home to be a comfort for ‘everyone’. Students tend to learn more from each other while engaging in challenging collective tasks and thinking together. In this case, they are “staring at a screen or blackboard, learners do not think, question, argue, discuss but only act as remote receptors of what is beamed.”

ENDINGS ARE BEGINNINGS

Endings are okay,
They are simply the opening to new beginnings
New life, new work and new experiences.
When an ending occurs,
You take the love and experiences
With you, in your heart
You get to choose a new beginning,
You get to choose beauty.
You get to choose love.
You get to choose God.
You get to choose YOU.

CHOOSE THE BEST, FOR BETTER DAYS AHEAD

Some of us must stay at home
And not go out the door,
Some of us are working
Like we've never worked before.
Some of us are falling out
With siblings, Dads, and Mothers
Some of us are reaching out
And looking after others.
Some of us are keeping busy
Doing lots of jobs,
Some of us have given up,
We're turning into slob.
Some of us are playing games
And learning brand new skills and following our hobbies.
Some of us are still 'no good'
And watching out for Bobbies.
Some of us have lots of friends
To text with and to phone,
Some of us have no one
And feel that we're alone.
Some of us feel positive
And think that we're in charge,
Some of us feel anxious
And fear the world at large.
Some of us have footpaths
To cycle, walk, and jog,
Some of us have nowhere nice
To even walk the dog.
None of us will ever know
What's really going on,
None of us will think the same
When all of this is done.
All of us can choose to spend
Our days in fear and dread, but,
All of us can choose to plan
For better days ahead.

THE CAGED BIRD

Behind those thin bars she tried to flap her wings,
But she couldn't fly and couldn't do anything.
She was happy to have a family, who loved her, gave her water and food to eat,
She was lucky as sometimes she got beautiful treats.
Many visitors come and play with her,
But from her silent chirping little did they infer,
She wanted to feel the sunlight and breathe the fresh air,
And in the balcony she was hung to her despair.
As she stood there, holding the thin bars of her cage,
Watching other birds 'flying free' she was infuriated with rage.
She flapped her wings and tried to fly away,
She was left with nothing but to stay,
For her life, she fascinated of flying high, smelling the flowers, touching and sitting on the beautiful lush green trees,
Her last wish was nothing but to fly high on her own,
And to be set free.

A POSITIVE ATTITUDE TO LIFE

The world is a beautiful place and we are the most privileged human beings.

Believe in yourself

You are greater than what you think you are, if you have the will, then you can and you will. don't say I can't do it.

Be Enthusiastic

Enthusiasm can move boulders. Remember, work done with enthusiasm is always an original and unique creation.

Don't compare

Never compare yourself with others. If you do so you are likely to become vain or bitter, for people will be greater or lesser than you.

Be a good listener

Try to listen the viewpoints of others. Don't argue unnecessarily without listening to what others have to say. Never impose your viewpoints on others.

Don't criticize others

Understand others, look at the matter from the others point of view. Be appreciative and empathetic.

समझ नहीं पाती हूँ।

गिरते देखती हूँ
इंसानों की इंसानियत को
इस महामारी के काल में।
कैसा वक्त है,
समझ नहीं पाती हूँ।
जब हर तरफ मौत के
आगोश में सोते अपनों
को देखती हूँ।
कैसा ये वक्त है,
जिस में जलती हूँ
हर वक्त अंधेरे में,
गुम होते खुद को खोती हूँ।
कैसा है ये वक्त
समझ नहीं पाती हूँ।
जब दर्द की वीणा से
खुशी की उम्मीद का
सुर सुनती हूँ।
हाहाकार के इस युग में
ईश्वर का चोला ओढ़ कर
निकले इंसान को देखती हूँ
कैसा है यह माहाकाल
समझ नहीं पाती हूँ।
बस प्रकृति को मुस्कुराते देख
जीवन की उम्मीद बांधते हुए,
एक बार फिर मुस्कुराने की
चाहत रख जाती हूँ।

साफ दिख रही थी सच्चाईयाँ
जीवन के संघर्षमय हिस्सों की,
हकीकत थी,
बहुत गहरी
उस धुंध के उजलेपन में
हिस्से मेरे भी थे,
उस अंशो के भागों में
माँगने को हिस्सेदारी
नहीं थी कोई ख्वाहिश
उस उजलती धुंध में.
धुंध में नहीं चमकता
हीरा था पर वो
धुंधला कराता हमेशा
अहसास अपने पन का
उस उजलती धुंध में उजलती धुंध

धुंध थी वो उजली हुई
पाँव से मुझको जकड़ी हुई
होश में मुझको खोये हुए
नाजाने क्यों? वो धुंध थी
कुछ उजली हुई.

IT'S A SUCCESS TO FAIL

As a little child when I wanted to move,
I learned that I should crawl.
Yet when I got on my hand and knees,
Again and again I would fall.

But I rose to my knees, each time I fell,
I was determined to get moving.
With every fall, I learned a better way,
Until finally I started crawling.

Now mommy saw, I was starting to learn,
And thought I needed more.
So from the cradle, I was placed on the floor,
I smiled, and crawled away to explore.

Now one day I saw, up on the table,
Something delicious I wanted to eat.
But unfortunately I couldn't reach,
And I knew it was time to get on my feet.

Both hands and knees were on the ground,
And I'd try to raise my belly.
Yet gradually as I tried to straighten.
Again and again I would fall.

But I rose to my feet each time I fell,
I was determined to start reaching.
With every fall, I learned a better way,
Until finally I started standing.

Now while I was standing, I wanted to move
But every few steps I stumbled.
So I spread my hands, against the wall,
Yet again and again I would fall.

But I rose to my feet each time I fell
I was determined to start hiking.
With every fall, I learned a better way,
Until finally I started walking.

All day long I walked and I played,
At last I could have some fun.
The more I walked, the better I got,
Until one day, I could actually run.

Bangs and bruises, were the only pain,
Which brought tears to my eyes.
And with every obstacle that came in my path,
I learned; there was a way around.

Now if that wasn't plenty to my parent's dismay,
I would try to climb the chairs.
Over and under, up and down.
Not until I fell and hurt my crown.

Memories of my childhood are still with me,
And it taught me an intelligent lesson.
That falling down is not the end,
But one-step higher to achieving.

I have made mistakes all through my life,
A hundred times I've failed.
But with every failure I learned a lesson;
A lesson, saying, "There's a better way".

From a tiny child that could barely move,
We learned how to roll and crawl.
Yet determined to reach the top,
We learned how to stand and walk.

But we didn't stop there; we learned to run,
Then we learned how to jump and climb.
So why stop now; the stars aren't high,
Let's just spread our wings, and fly.

Challenging, unprecedented, turbulent, extraordinary: these years were the toughest that most of the people have ever known. It's hard to imagine anyone missing 2020 when it's over. The COVID-19 pandemic has caused significant disruption, distress, and loss of life around the world.

It is hard to overestimate the adverse effects that the current COVID 19 pandemic has produced in our lives. The most striking effect, of course, is the illness and death that the virus has caused. The economy has been devastated throughout the world, small businesses being among the hardest hit. In many cases the work and accomplishments of a lifetime have been lost.

The foregoing adverse effects of the virus are well known and have been experienced by almost everyone. They really don't need repeating. However, in a slightly different vein, the pandemic has provided the substrate for a number of things to ponder upon which are the numerous blessings that god has bestowed upon all of us. The privileges of having a safe housing, food too ingest and the many more privileges granted during such a challenging time.

This period made us realise the importance of health, family, food, helpers and the whole world. Each person in the world is facing some or the other difficulties which I know couldn't be vanished completely but we on our part can avail oneself of the opportunities provided to make the world a better place to live in. We can conserve the resources to the maximum possible extent, donate blood, food, clothing etc., be civically engaged, protect the environment, reduce waste, spread some kindness, help the homeless and majorly "be positive".

The idea of changing the world can be daunting. It's not only easy to think, "I'm only one person; what can I really do?" but if every person thinks that, nothing will get done. Perhaps if every person did just one thing to make the world a better place today, billions of acts of kindness, social responsibility and generosity would take place — and wouldn't that alone change the face of this planet? Clearly, no degree of benefit could outweigh the negative aspects of the disease. But the opportunities imposed have made these very difficult times more tolerable. As the saying goes, every dark cloud has a silver lining.

HOW TO OVERCOME THE STRESS OF LONELINESS?

The COVID-19 pandemic has had a major effect on our lives. Many of us are facing challenges that can be stressful, overwhelming, and cause strong emotions in adults and children. Public health actions, such as social distancing, are necessary to reduce the spread of COVID-19, but they can make us feel isolated and lonely and can increase stress and anxiety. Learning to cope with stress in a healthy way will make you, the people you care about, and those around you become more resilient.

Stress can cause the following:

Feelings of fear, anger, sadness, worry, numbness, or frustration

Changes in appetite, energy, desires, and interests

Difficulty concentrating and making decisions

Difficulty sleeping or nightmares

Physical reactions, such as headaches, body pains, stomach problems, and skin rashes

Worsening of chronic health problems

Worsening of mental health conditions

Take breaks from watching, reading, or listening to news stories, including those on social media. It's good to be informed, but hearing about the pandemic constantly can be upsetting. Consider limiting news to just a couple times a day and disconnecting from phone, tv, and computer screens for a while.

Take care of your body

Take deep breaths, stretch, or meditateexternal icon

Try to eat healthy, well-balanced meals

Exercise regularly

Get plenty of sleep

Avoid excessive alcohol, tobacco, and substance use

Continue with routine preventive measures (such as vaccinations, cancer screenings, etc.) as recommended by your healthcare provider

HOW TO OVERCOME THE STRESS OF LONELINESS?

Get vaccinated with a COVID-19 vaccine

Make time to unwind — Try to do some other activities you enjoy

Connect with others — Talk with people you trust about your concerns and how you are feeling

Connect with your community — or faith-based organizations — While social distancing measures are in place, try connecting online, through social media, or by phone or mail.

Taking care of yourself can better equip you to take care of others. During times of social distancing, it is especially important to stay connected with your friends and family. Helping others cope with stress through phone calls or video chats can help you and your loved ones feel less lonely or isolated.

चारों तरफ अंधेरा, बंद पड़ा इन दरवाजों में।
अंधेरो का भय सताता, समझ नहीं कुछ मेरे आता।
सब तरफ था काला अंधेरा, कुछ नजर न आया।।
चीख रहा था इधर-उधर, कैसे उजाला पाऊं मैं।
टूटी थी हर उम्मीद, कैसे बाहर जाऊं मैं।।
लगा मुझे मेहनत करने पर, मैंने कुछ ना पाया
अब मेरा हृदय, दुख के सागर संभर आया।।
सब तरफ था काला अंधेरा, कुछ नजर न आया।।
इतने में दिखी एक किरण उजाले की, कूद गया अपनी मंजिल पाने को ।
बहुत रुकावटें आती हैं, सही मंजिल अपनाने को।
सब तरफ था काला अंधेरा कुछ नजर न आया।।

अभी पहुंचा नहीं हूँ मैं॥
कदमों को बांधन पाएंगी,
मुसीबत की जंजीरें ।
रास्तोंसे ज़रा कह दो,
अभी भटका नहीं हूँ मैं॥
सब्र का बांध टूटेगा,
तोफना कर के रख दूंगा।
दुश्मन से ज़रा कहदो,
अभी गरजा नहीं हूँ मैं ॥
दिल में छुपा के रखी है,
लड़कपन की चाहतें ।
मोहब्बत से ज़रा कहदो,
अभी बदला नहीं हूँ मैं॥
मेरे साथ चलताहूँ,
दुआओंकाकाफिला।
किस्मत से ज़रा कहदो,
अभी तनहा नहीं हूँ मैं ॥

COMM-IT Career Academy

From the Principal's Desk

It gives me immense pleasure to pen a few words as prologue to our institute magazine 'AWADH RADIANCE' exclusively meant for churning out the latent writing talent which bears immense potentiality of sharpening your communication skill as part of your overall personality development.

AWADH RADIANCE provides an intersection of great challenge and great opportunity for the students to review their efforts and to analyze their achievements in research and development. Technology is evolving at a dizzying rate and our classrooms may not be designed to keep pace with it. There may be a lot wrong in the style of education but the pages of magazine tell the tale of all that have been a part of what is right about the education they get in COMM-IT CAREER ACADEMY.

I congratulate the team of students and the faculty for their tireless efforts that have come to fruition in the form of this magazine.

I wish it all success and hope that this tradition that has been set by the current students will be carried through by the following generation of students to come.

Message From
Department of Computer Science
Editor

It is my pleasure to congratulate the team for bringing out a quality college magazine. AWADH RADIANCE, our college magazine, is a platform for our students to showcase their creative abilities hidden dreams and aspirations for writing. Our magazine aims towards bringing out the latent talent in our students through articles, poems, quizzes and experiences. We encourage our students to put on their thinking caps and create.

Nora Roberts has rightly said, “If you don’t go after what you want, you will never have it. If you don’t step forward, you are always in the same place.” This students’ magazine is just that step to make them move forward towards their dreams.

I congratulate our students who used various mediums of expression to present their ideas. As long as our ideas are expressed and thoughts kindled we can be sure of learning, as everything begins with an idea. We hope you enjoy reading this issue as much as we have enjoyed making it.

On this occasion, I grab the opportunity to offer a warm adieu to the outgoing batches of students on successful completion of their course of study.

Wishing you all the best in your ventures, efforts and careers.

SILVER LININGS

How can I find the silver lining when there's no cloud
It's all rainbow and sunshine and we're singing out loud.
Quickly I try to find a tunnel to walk, hoping to find the light at the end is it just so happens that my luck, found me a tunnel which never seems to end.
Was I wrong to thought it was a chains of events in serendipity,
Or to hope this happiness to last beyond the infinity?
It's like starting fire in the rain, hoping to find a warm comfort,
Instead what I got is pain, and the rain won't wash away the pain suffered.

POEM

Life was always fast-paced, we never slowed down,
Until everything stopped when Corona came to town.

Now all is quiet and there's peace all around,
We've looked in our hearts and kindness we've found.

We learn now with mum, this is a new feature,
But we can't wait to get back to our teacher.

I miss Sea Cadets, school, my friends and my dad,
I miss sharing the fun times and that makes me sad.

We've had social distancing picnics, social distancing walks,
Social distancing hugs and social distancing talks.

I'm looking forward to getting away,
The beach, the hotel and a perfect holiday.

When it is? I'll throw my arms open wide,
And shout to the world, WE CAN ALL GO OUTSIDE!

Don't give up hope, the end is in sight,
If we all stick together, we'll all win this fight.

INNOVATIVE THINGS DURING COVID TIME

Days in lockdown were an opportunity for children to reinvent ways of play and learning, exploring their immediate environment and making the most of what they had available. Building resilience in children is one way we help them to cope in difficult moments. So below are the productive things which I did during lockdown:-

Playing Piano

When I was a kid, I dabbled with playing the piano, but lost interest as I got older. The pandemic provided me with the time and opportunity to revisit music. I found a virtual piano teacher and started taking weekly lessons. I can now play a couple of songs all the way through and it's become a great way for me to decompress after a long day.

Learn Languages

Language learning app memorize has recently launched its new Immerse feature, which includes thousands of bite-sized video clips shot by native speakers from their locked-down homes across the world. Offering authentic conversation and phrases that you'd need during your first post-lockdown trip, so I keep myself busy by learning French and Spanish through it.

Take Up Photography

View life through a different lens as you capture all the important moments - big or small - on camera. So I have also mastered myself in taking pictures of everything which I see near my surroundings.

Learn to Cook

With an array of recipe books and through YouTube Channels I learn to cook much delicious food and impressed my family. Especially with the Dalgona Coffee and cakes.

Start A Blog

You can never go wrong with writing a blog. Whether you're using it as an online writing portfolio, a space to share your passions or as an opportunity to try something new, it's time to get those creative juices flowing. So I too started with that during Lockdown.

COLLEGE LIFE – FREEDOM OR RESPONSIBILITIES

Within a few months, we will be joining a college. The anticipation of how life will be is probably filling the air around every eighteen year old with excitement.

How do you think, the college life will be? How do you look at it? Would it be freedom from strict discipline imposed on you by the school? A carefree life with no worries of completing assigned homework. Or, is it the beginning of responsible preparation for a brilliant career?

In college, we shall have the freedom to work at our own pace. There will be no homework. There will be assignments. But, we shall not have to turn it in the very next day. There will be no dictates, uniforms or punishments. However, college means extra responsibilities.

No one will force us to study every day and constantly nag us about our scores. But, being in college means that we are responsible enough to study on our own, work towards our career and prepare for the competitive, real world out there.

In college life, unlike school life, the stress is more on self-reliance and zero spoon-feeding. When in college, we would have the freedom to choose what we study and how we study. It would give us a sneak-peek into the dream career that awaits us. Therefore, we have to make wise choices.

I think, college life would be a mixed bag of fun, freedom, experiments and responsibilities. It will contain new hopes and aspirations, new joys and disappointments and new friends.

Those wiser than us say that college days are the best days of one's life. The decisions we make now shape up our future.

Conclusion

College Life is a remarkable and essential time in a person's life, and everyone should enjoy it. College Life teaches us many things and builds our confidence to face the challenges and struggles in our future. Instead of just focusing on the study, a person must participate in other activities and socialize as much as possible in his/her college life as all these things help in the overall development of a person.

ENDEAVOUR

An Endeavour is an attempt to do especially something new or original. So, it was really like an endeavor in all our lives. Yes, I am talking about the NOVEL CORONA VIRUS as we hear about spread of COVID-19 from all over the world, through television, social media, newspapers, family and friends and other sources. The most common emotion faced by all is Fear. At that time few people were at the harshest condition in their own life but also some of us also spending our time with our families and maybe #me time which was rarely we wouldn't spent before. Then, the one thing that is introduced in life are these masks and now it's like a trend and mandatory everywhere. The emphasis is on taking extensive precautions such as extensive hygiene protocol (e.g., regularly washing of hands, avoidance of face to face interaction etc.), social distancing, and wearing of masks, and so on. So to make this world a better place to live in we should contribute by following all the protocols given by the government.

"There was never a night or a problem that could defeat sunrise or hope."

THE IMPACT OF COVID-19 PANDEMIC ON STUDENTS

The World Health Organization (WHO) on March 11, 2020, has declared the novel corona virus (COVID-19) outbreak a global pandemic. At a news briefing, WHO Director-General, Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, noted that over the past 2 weeks, the number of cases outside China increased 13-fold and the number of countries with cases increased threefold. Further increases are expected. He said that the WHO is "deeply concerned both by the alarming levels of spread and severity and by the alarming levels of inaction," and he called on countries to take action now to contain the virus. "We should double down," he said. "We should be more aggressive."

The COVID-19 pandemic and the enforced restrictions have harshly affected educational sectors in 161 countries around the world. With more than 1.6 billion students away from normal school life, the crisis threatens the teaching and learning processes and the students' emotional health.

There are no significant advantages because there is a huge loss in jobs, lives, and the economy of the Country. But speaking about the children, there are some advantages.

Students can use their quality time in studying and the other activities in which they are interested. Spend time in the house by not going out and enjoy watch movies and do some craftwork.

Best time to spend with grandparents, cousins, mother, father, and other relatives as there is ample time to spend (if possible, as per government norms). Moreover, everyone is doing working from home. There is no need to step out of the house and meet with relatives you can pick the phone and call them and talk with builds more family relations.

Online classes, the adoption rate is around 50-60% whereas in the classroom the adoption was around 80-90%. Online classes affect the eyes of the students due to long hours in front of the blue screen

Small children like the playschool and the primary grades must not have this type of class because they have low concentration power, and these small kids do not have the ability to sit for a longer time in front of the blue screen.

Lots of poor students do not have access to laptops and computers; all these students are naïve, think there should not be this disparate education.

TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCEMENT IN THE ERA OF PANDEMIC

During pandemic, People have seen a lot of positive and negative changes in several sectors. In this article, I am highlighting some positive change in aspects of people to technology. As the past 10 years have seen the development and maturation of several digital technologies that can have a critical role to enhancement of happiness and psychological well-being. In particular, the past decade has seen the emergence of a new paradigm: “Positive Technology,” the scientific and applied approach to the use of technology for improving the quality of our personal experience. In this article we discussed the potential of Positive Technology to augment and enhance the existing strategies for generating psychological well-being during the COVID-19 pandemic. In particular different positive technologies m-Health and Smartphone apps, stand-alone and social virtual reality, video games, exergames, and social technologies—have the potential of enhancing different critical features of our personal experience— affective quality, actualization, and connectedness—that are challenged by the pandemic and its social and economic effects. In conclusion, although the focus of tackling the direct impact of COVID-19 is important, positive technologies can be extremely useful to reduce the psychological burden of the pandemic and to help individuals in flourishing even during difficult and complex times.

लॉकडाउन

लॉकडाउन होने से,
हमने सीखा रिश्तो को निभाना |
पुराने रिश्तों की हुई एक नई शुरुआत,
दूर होकर भी सभी हुए पास |

विडियो काल हुआ बड़ा लोकप्रिय,
बच्चे-बूढ़े सभी इसी में डूब गए |
घर में रहकर सभी सिख गए तरह-तरह के पकवान बनाना
फिर सबको प्यार और उत्साह से खिलाना |

इन्टरनेट ने की हम सबकी मदद,
घर पर बैठकर की ऑनलाइन शॉपिंग |
देखे बहुत मनोरंजन के वीडियो,
और की ऑनलाइन पढ़ाई |

कभी न सोचा था, ऐसा दिन भी आएगा ,
कहीं इन्सानों में भगवान देखने को मिल जाएगा |
ऐसी परिस्थितियों में उन्होंने की दूसरों की मदद,
जरूरतमन्दों के चेहरों पर लाए मुस्कान |

हमारे खातिर डॉक्टर, पुलिस, सुरक्षा कर्मी, नगर पालिका कर्मी सभी काम पर गए |
हमारे खातिर अपनी जान की परवाह ना करते हुए अपना कर्तव्य निभाया |
पता तो उन्हें भी था , इसमें जा सकती है उनकी जान ,
छिन सकती हैं उनके घरवालों की मुस्कान |

हमारी मदद करने में जिन्होंने खुद को किया कुर्बान |
नहीं भुला पाएंगे हम उनका यह बलिदान |
करते हैं हम उन्हें शत-शत प्रणाम |

HOW I LEARNED BASIC COOKING DURING THE PANDEMIC

When I was young I thought I was amazing at cooking. Of course, at that time my definition of cooking was cleaning and cutting vegetables.! Would try my hand at making a sandwich or an omelette, but that would be where both the kitchen and I would draw the line. As I grew up, I perfected the art of making noodles (it is never too soggy or too dry) and tried various variations of it: spicy extreme, chilli cheese and my favorite, cup noodles (hey, its a lot harder for me than it looks.)

With the lockdown in place, and everyone encouraging me to pick up a new skill, I thought of revisiting cooking, and this time, beyond just cutting vegetables for the head chef (my mother). If you are where I am, that is, a newbie when it comes to cooking, then here is something that will help you out.

THE PANDEMIC 2020

The word Pandemic seems not to be familiar with all of us many people have listened this word in movies and web series related to Zombies. We get to know about this word in 2019 in real life when the COVID -19 spread all over the world. It was firstly reported in Wuhan China in November 2019. India reported its first case on January 27, 2020 , a 20 year old female presented to the Emergency Department in General Hospital, Thrissur, Kerala and after that it spread all over the country. This was the first time I have seen a pandemic in my life and for most of the youngsters. Everyone knows the COVID -19 affected the world as well as our country India in 2020. Nobody knows that it would spread so fast. In Delhi the first case was reported in 2 March 2020. I still remember that on the evening of 24 March 2020, the government of India ordered a nationwide lockdown for 21 days, limiting the movement of the entire 1.38 billion population of India as a preventive measure against the COVID-19 Pandemic in India. On that day most of the Boards students were preparing for their Boards exam 2020. It affects India very badly and specially to the workers who came to Delhi for works and wanted to go to home as soon as possible with their families.

Everything shutdowns like production , services , Schools , Colleges , but the technology helps children in getting education by sitting in any corner of the world as we were already digitalized so the classes were being held online and nowadays universities are offering online courses , even degrees .

The pandemic also affects the jobs of many people as there was no work so the companies were short listing their staff.

The virus is mutating these days also we often hear about new variant of the virus delta and Omicron.

This Pandemic taught us many things like Family matters more than we realized and we should stay strong in any situations.

BILAL AHMED

POEM

Before the virus, I went to school, everything was happy.
Now I see people with face masks and few cars
but I am happier to have more time with my mom and I have more days to play.
I'm afraid that my family and friends will get sick.
I miss playing with my friends at school.
I miss visiting my grandparents at their house.
I dream about seeing my best friend and then us going to the beach.
While this [lockdown] happens, I draw pictures, I play and I do homework.
I hope that this ends so I can go back to seeing my friends.
When all this ends, I will go to the park to skate.
All this will pass, we will be fine, if we take care of ourselves [and] wash our hands, the virus will die.
Stay at home so we can go out.

THE BEAUTY OF SPRING.....

Spring season comes between winter and summer. Its beginning marks the end of harsh winter and its end marks the beginning of summer. Though this season is short lived, it is called the king of all seasons. Spring is the season of rebirth and rejuvenation of nature. It awakens nature from deep slumber and nature becomes active again and brings a new life to Earth. It brings happiness and joy after three long months of winter. Everywhere, nature becomes full of liveliness such as flowers start blooming, trees start getting new and tender leaves, sky becomes clear and blue, rivers murmur mildly, etc.

SPRING is the symbol of life. The occurrence of spring season varies from country to country and temperature of this season also varies from place to place in the country. When it is spring in the northern hemisphere, it is autumn in the southern hemisphere and vice-versa. The length of the day increases due to the tilt of the Earth's axis towards the sun. Harsh and long winters can cause depression and anxiety in many people. In spring, people come out of hibernation and rejuvenate themselves in moderate temperature. People keep away their heavy and warm winter clothes and start wearing light clothes. Spring motivates people to get back into their fitness regime.

The beauty of this season brings happiness and joy all around and makes our minds very creative and gives energy to the body to start work with full of confidence. People go out on short trips or long vacations during this season. Children enjoy picnics and play around. This season is perfect for hiking and nature walks.

THE BEAUTY OF SPRING.....

Spring is also the season for the flowers to bloom and animals to breed. After a long silence of the winter season, the chirping of the birds, buzzing of the bees in the early mornings and moonlight in the night becomes very calm and soothing. It is a great pleasure to watch the beautiful butterflies hopping from one flower to another in the gardens. The sky looks clear and wind becomes cool and refreshing making everything around so serene. A variety of flowers bloom in the spring season. Rose, Tulips, Daisies, Lilies, Hyacinths are some of the important flowers that are grown in this season. We get a variety of vegetables and fruits during this season. They look so fresh and sumptuous. Mango blossoms rise up on the mango trees. Plants and animals look cheerful and high-spirited; so as humans.

It is the most important season for the farmers. The farmers look happy because after a long wait and months of long labor, the crops get ready to be harvested. Rabi crops are the agricultural crops that were sown in winter and harvested in spring.

Spring brings joy and happiness in every one's heart, as it is the season of festivals and weddings. The festivals are celebrated to mark the arrival of spring with colors. Holi, the festival of colors is celebrated in this season. It marks the beginning of spring. Holi symbolizes the triumph of good over evil. Harvesting festivals like Bihu, Baisakhi, Pongal, etc. are celebrated during this time. Other important festivals like Hanuman Jayanti, Ram Navami, Good Friday, and Easter are also celebrated in this season.

To sum it all, spring is the best season of the year anywhere. Spring brings joy and happiness along with him. It refers to love, hope, youth and this season. It has the most beautiful and comfortable climate during this time. It is indeed called the king of all seasons.
