"We want that education by which character is formed, strength of mind is increased, the intellect of mind is expanded, and by which one can stand on one's own feet"

- Swami Vivekananda

From Principal's Desk.....

Dear Readers

As you navigate the journey of IVS through this Newsletter, you will discover the answers to your queries about our academic programme and ventures held in campus. Striving for a vibrant and dynamic academic atmosphere is a wholesome exercise calling for integration of students with quality and excellence. I sense gigantic happiness to release present Newsletter, December, 2022 issue of bi-annual bulletin of endeavors inboard with Awadh Centre of Education (IVS). The aim of releasing this newsletter is to come up with a snapshot of the various activities and contests inaugurated and coalesced by Awadh family.

Present newsletter is a gleam of hidden potentials of students and contribution and dedication of Management, Faculty Members and Non- teaching staff of Institute of Vocational Studies whose continuous support remained helpful to give newsletter its final look. My sincere thanks to my dear students for the recourse and support to exhibit various festivities in guise of newsletter.

I believe the bulletin in your hand would confer a perfect highlight of collegiate and artistic segments of the Awadh family.

Dr. Mandira Gupta
Principal

Mission & Vision

The best form of human empowerment is education and with this vision, Institute of Vocational Studies is committed to provide quality education to all. To accomplish its goal, the IVS aims to provide mindfulness practices that can also improve students' academic life, besides, educating the socially backward and minority community. Here, at Institute of Vocational Studies, we believe in bringing excellence in all our endeavors. This initiative in future will act as a buffer against the depressive symptoms associated with discrimination and can help an individual express their character strength in a balanced way.
