(Held on – 16th FEBRUARY 2025 to 22nd FEBRUARY 2025)

REPORT on National Integration Camp 2025, 16th February to 22nd February, 2025

The National Integration Camp, aimed at promoting national unity, harmony, and cultural diversity, concluded with a grand ceremony at the Senate Hall of Shivaji University, Kolhapur. Over 200 youth participants and 14 team managers from 12 states across the country actively engaged in the camp, showcasing their cultural and traditional arts.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude towards Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal Institute of Vocational Studies who gave us the golden opportunity to be the part of the NIC NSS CAMP 2025 held at Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Maharashtra. Your trust in our abilities have allowed us to grow and learn significantly, and we truly appreciate your support.

I thank Ms. Nahid Raees, NSS Programme Officer, Institute of Vocational Studies whose unending guidance and support helped me a lot to complete this camp journey successfully.

Under the guidance of Dr. Mandira Gupta (Principal, Institute of Vocational Studies), Sonali Tiwari and Vareesha Khatoon students of B.Ed., 2 Yr got the golden opportunity to be the part of NIC NSS CAMP 2025, Shivaji University, Kohlapur, Maharashtra.

Over 200 youth participants and 14 team managers from 12 states across the country actively engaged in the camp, showcasing their cultural and traditional arts. The event was presided over by Dr. Digambar Shirke, Vice-Chancellor of Shivaji University. Other notable attendees included Pro-Vice-Chancellor Dr. P. S. Patil, Registrar Dr. V. N. Shinde, Regional Director Dr. Ajay Shinde, Youth Officer Sumant Kumar Yadav, and Director Dr. T. M. Chougale.

In his address, Dr. D. T. Shirke emphasized the importance of unity among youth for the nation's development and urged them to work towards realizing the dream of a developed India through such initiatives. Pro-Vice-Chancellor Dr. P. S. Patil highlighted the significance of national integration and called upon the youth to come together for the country's bright future.

With a cultural performance by the Delhi team including Sonali Tiwari and Vareesha Khatoon from Institute of Vocational Studies, GGSIPU (B.Ed., 2 Yr) who presented a "folk dance" representing the diversity of India. The evening ended with a lively campfire, fostering camaraderie among participants.

Certificates were distributed to the participating youth by the dignitaries. States that excelled in various competitions, including traditional and cultural programs, costume displays, poster making, tug-of-war, best group, and group discussions, were awarded shields and certificates. The camp facilitated interactions among youth from different regions, promoting messages of linguistic harmony, peace, cultural, and social unity. Through traditional dance, music, and various art presentations, the unity in India's diversity was underscored.

Team leaders and National Service Scheme (NSS) students from Tamil Nadu, and Maharashtra praised Team Delhi for representing multicultural performances in the National Integration Camp. Participating youth expressed joy over their experiences, noting that the camp provided them with new energy and inspiration. The organizers were commended for the successful execution of the event.

The closing ceremony concluded with the national anthem, chants of "Jai Bhavani Jai Shivaji," and "Vande Mataram," reinforcing the message of national unity. The program commenced with a welcome and introduction by Prof. Dr. Ajay Shinde, followed by a report reading by Sumant Kumar Yadav, and concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. T. M. Chougale. The event was anchored by Sayali Shinde.
