Prelims of Anugoonj

21.1.25

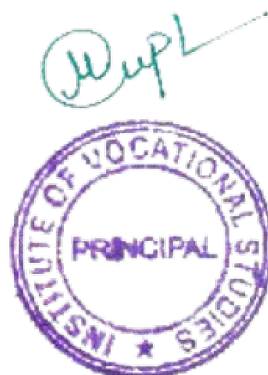

On [21st January 2025], Don Bosco Institute organised prelims of Anugoonj 2025. The venue was filled with a vibrant atmosphere filled with students from various colleges, all dressed in different attires and carrying musical instruments for their respective performances.

The event saw participation from numerous colleges, with students competing in various categories such as Debate, Dance, Group Song, Hindi Poetry Recitation, Just a Minute, and Rangoli Competition.

From our college, several students participated with great enthusiasm. Notably, Abhishek Kumar Singh secured the second position in the Hindi Debate competition. MD Iftkhar showcased remarkable talent by winning the first position in Hindi Poetry Recitation, securing second place in the Just a Minute (Hindi) competition, and also achieving the second position in the Hindi Debate competition.

Following the performances, a grand prize distribution ceremony was conducted, where the winners were felicitated for their achievements. Every participant received a certificate of participation, acknowledging their efforts and dedication.

Overall, attending Anugoonj was an enriching experience. We learned a lot from the event, observed diverse performances, and gained insights into different forms of artistic and intellectual expression. The event concluded on a delightful note, leaving us with memorable experiences and valuable lessons.
