BOOK FAIR

Date of Event: 02 February 2026

Organised By: Institute of Vocational Studies, GGSIPU University

A book fair was organized in our college under the supervision of Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal, IVS, to promote reading habits and enhance knowledge among students. The book fair was held in the college library, which was well arranged for the event. Students and faculty members visited the fair with great enthusiasm.

The publisher displayed a wide variety of books, including academic textbooks, reference books, competitive exam guides, novels, and general knowledge books. Students visited a lot of books online, selected books according to their interests and academic requirements on these websites:-

The book fair was both enjoyable and educational. Students enjoyed exploring different books and learned a lot about books and publications. The interactive environment encouraged students to develop an interest in reading beyond their regular syllabus.

Overall, the book fair was a successful and enriching experience. It helped students understand the importance of books and motivated them to cultivate a habit of reading. Such events should be organized regularly in colleges to promote learning and intellectual growth.
