

Report on Constitution Walk
“Hamara Samvidhan, Hamara Swabhiman”

2nd January, 2026

Institute of Vocational Studies (GGSIPU), New Delhi

The Institute of Vocational Studies (IVS), affiliated with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU), New Delhi, organized a Constitution Walk on 2nd January, 2026, based on the theme “Hamara Samvidhan, Hamara Swabhiman” (Our Constitution, Our Pride), to commemorate Samvidhan Divas and mark 75 years of the adoption of the Constitution of India.

The primary objective of the activity was to create awareness among students regarding the importance and relevance of the Indian Constitution and to inculcate constitutional values such as democracy, justice, equality, unity, and national pride. The activity was conducted within the Institute premises under the guidance and supervision of faculty members.

Students participated enthusiastically and demonstrated their creativity and understanding of constitutional ideals by carrying visually appealing posters during the Constitution Walk. The posters reflected key themes including fundamental rights and duties, democratic values, equality, and justice as enshrined in the Constitution of India.

The walk was conducted across the institute premises to spread awareness and encourage appreciation of constitutional values among the academic community. The activity provided a meaningful platform for students to express their views creatively while enhancing their understanding of the Constitution.

Overall, the Constitution Walk was successfully conducted and proved to be an enriching and impactful experience for the students.

Glimpses of the Day

