

INSTITUTE OF VOCATIONAL STUDIES
(Affiliated to GGSIPU & SCERT, Delhi)

Report on Exhibition Organized Under “Humara Sanvidhan, Humara Abhiman”

14th January, 2026

An exhibition was successfully organized by IVS College on 14 January 2026 under the theme “Humara Sanvidhan, Humara Abhiman”, with the objective of creating awareness and fostering pride among students regarding the Indian Constitution and its core values.

The exhibition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of IVS College, who showcased a wide range of creative and informative works based on the theme. The exhibits included charts, posters, models, paintings, slogans, and handwritten notes highlighting important aspects of the Constitution such as Fundamental Rights and Duties, the Preamble, constitutional values, democratic principles, and the role of citizens in nation-building.

Faculty members guided and motivated students throughout the preparation process, ensuring that the displays were informative, innovative, and aligned with the theme. Students explained their exhibits with confidence and clarity, reflecting their understanding of constitutional ideals like justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. The exhibition served as an interactive learning platform, encouraging discussions and exchange of ideas among students, faculty members, and visitors.

The Principal, Dr Mandira Gupta and other faculty members appreciated the creativity, originality, and efforts of the participants. The event not only enhanced students’ knowledge about the Constitution but also instilled a sense of responsibility and pride towards being informed citizens of India.

The exhibition concluded on a positive note, reinforcing the message that the Indian Constitution is not just a legal document but a source of national pride and unity. The event was a meaningful and enriching experience for everyone involved and successfully fulfilled its purpose.

