Report on Mock parliament

30th December, 2025

A Mock Parliament was successfully conducted at Institute of Vocational Studies with the objective of familiarizing students with the working of the Indian Parliamentary system and promoting democratic values among future educators. The programme was organized to help students understand the structure, roles, and responsibilities of the Parliament, including the Speaker, Prime Minister, Ministers, Leader of Opposition, and Members of Parliament. Students actively participated by representing different political parties and parliamentary roles, which helped them gain practical exposure to legislative procedures. During the session, discussions were held on important national and social issues. The proceedings included question hour, debates, and presentation of viewpoints by both the ruling party and the opposition. The Speaker maintained discipline and ensured that the session followed parliamentary rules and decorum. The Mock Parliament encouraged students to think critically, express their opinions confidently, and respect diverse viewpoints. It also enhanced their communication skills, leadership qualities, and awareness of constitutional values such as equality, justice, and freedom of expression. Faculty members guided the students throughout the programme and appreciated their enthusiasm and preparation. The event concluded with a reflection session, where students shared their learning experiences and acknowledged the importance of democratic participation. Overall, the Mock Parliament was an informative and engaging activity that contributed significantly to the academic and civic development of the students.
