INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM IN TEACHER EDUCATION: BRIDGING TRADITION AND MODERNITY

20th January, 2026

Organized by Institute of Vocational Studies (GGSIPU), New Delhi

The Institute of Vocational Studies (IVS), affiliated with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU), New Delhi, organized a National Conference on “Indian Knowledge System in Teacher Education: Bridging Tradition and Modernity” under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) on 20th January, 2026. The Conference was conducted in hybrid mode, facilitating participation from academicians and researchers across the country. The primary objective of the conference was to promote interdisciplinary and multicultural perspectives by integrating India’s rich cultural heritage with contemporary and future educational requirements.

The inaugural session commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge. This was followed by a welcome address by Dr. Mandira Gupta, Principal, IVS, who highlighted the relevance of the Indian Knowledge System in strengthening teacher education in alignment with modern pedagogical practices. The event was organized with the support and guidance of Mr. Naushad Khalid, Patron, and Mr. Khalid Hashmi, Director, IVS, who contributed significantly to providing this academic platform.

The keynote address was delivered by the esteemed guest speaker, Dr. Anjali Shokeen, Associate Professor, University School of Education (GGSIPU), New Delhi. Dr. Shokeen elaborated on the conference theme, emphasizing the importance of blending traditional Indian knowledge with modern educational frameworks. She has been the recipient of several prestigious academic honors, including the Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan Memorial National Award.

Following the inaugural session, the technical session was conducted which was chaired by Dr. Anjali Shokeen and co-chaired by Dr. Mandira Gupta. Approximately 25 paper presenters shared their research and actively participated in scholarly discussions. Dr. Shokeen provided insightful and constructive feedback to the presenters, enriching the academic deliberations.

The conference witnessed enthusiastic participation from faculty members and research scholars representing various institutions, including Kasturi Ram College of Higher Education (GGSIPU), New Delhi; College of Teacher Education, Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Nuh; Department of Political Science, University of Delhi; Department of Teacher Training and Non-Formal Education (IASE), Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi; Department of Education, Sanskriti University, Mathura; and Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Punjab.

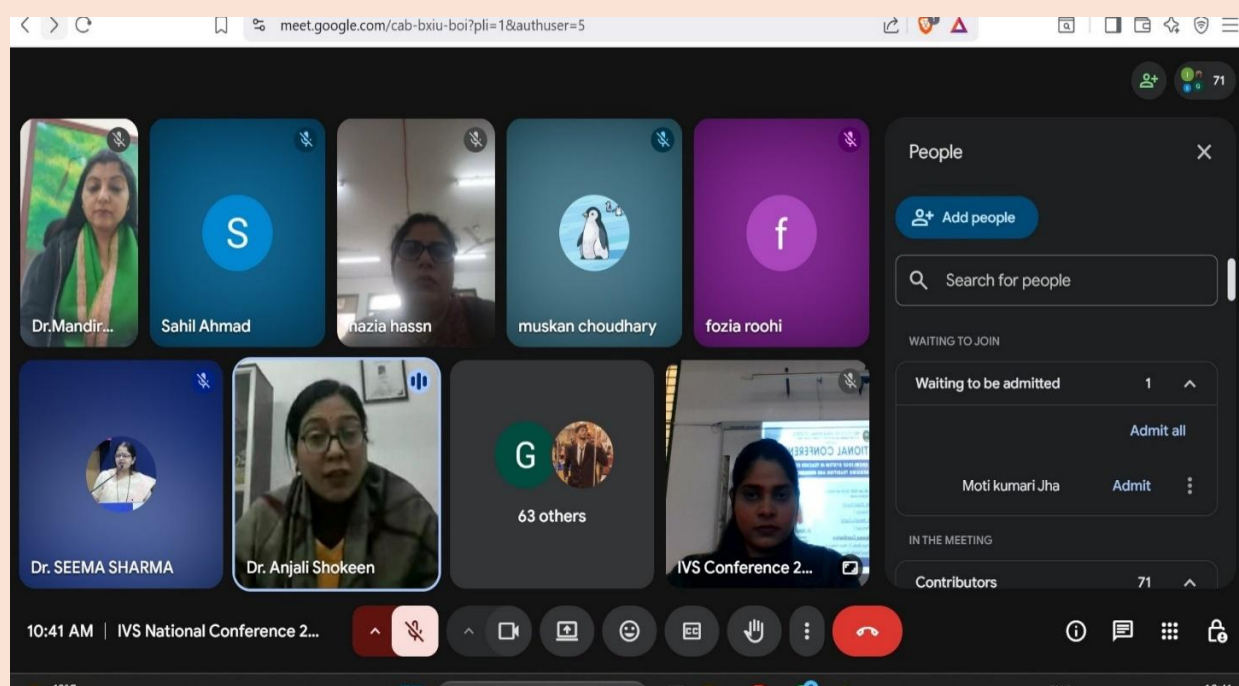

The successful organization of the conference was made possible through the dedicated efforts of the Conference Coordinators - Dr. Fozia Roohi, Dr. Parul Maheshwari, Dr. Nazia Hassan, and Dr. Mohd. Zainul Abedin Shamsi, who meticulously managed all academic and logistical arrangements.

The conference concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Fozia Roohi, expressing gratitude to the esteemed guest speaker Dr. Anjali Shokeen, Mr. Naushad Khalid, Mr. Khalid Hashmi, Dr. Mandira Gupta, faculty members, research scholars, students, and the technical team for their valuable contributions in making the conference a resounding success.
