REPORT ON ALUMNI MEET

Institute of Vocational Studies, Awadh centre of Education on January 24th, 2025, seniors of our college from batch 2022 delivered their experience with us on Google meet titled "sharing experience, attracting approximately 80 students and faculty members. This Google meet where the Alumni of college shared experience that they faced in online mode and said that for students enrolled in the Bachelor of Education (B.Ed) program, the transition to online education has been both a challenge and a unique opportunity to develop new skills. This report focuses on the experiences of senior B.Ed students who have completed their coursework in an online mode. It also highlights their insights on important exams such as the Central Teacher Eligibility Test (CTET) and other relevant exams, along with their gratitude for the guidance and support provided by their teachers throughout the course.

some students mentioned initial difficulties, such as adapting to virtual classroom dynamics and managing the lack of direct face-to-face interaction. Nevertheless, they acknowledged the adaptability required in an online learning environment, which ultimately helped them prepare for future teaching challenges in the digital age.

The seniors also praised the online resources made available to them, including recorded lectures, online workshops, and discussion forums that allowed them to access study material at any time.

Despite the challenges of online education, the seniors were unanimous in their appreciation for the unwavering support provided by their teachers throughout the program.

- "Our teachers were always there to guide us, whether through one-on-one consultations or group sessions. They understood the struggles we faced with online learning and went the extra mile to make sure we stayed engaged and motivated," said a senior student".

There were 3 seniors who got employed In government Job as well . They were really appreciating the college , principal , faculty members who were the pillar of strength for them .

They shared the insightful on CTET exam as well .

The Central Teacher Eligibility Test (CTET) is a crucial examination for aspiring teachers in India, and many seniors highlighted the significance of proper preparation for such exams during their B.Ed course.

- "I appreciated how our course syllabus was designed to align with the CTET exam. The practice tests and mock exams provided by the institute were incredibly helpful in building my confidence," shared one senior who had recently cleared the CTET.

The seniors' reflections underscore the importance of adaptability, self-discipline, and the role of supportive educators in navigating the online learning landscape. As they move forward in their teaching careers, these students carry with them not only academic knowledge but also valuable lessons in perseverance, digital fluency, and the power of community.
