

Ms. Sapna Rani

Lecturer, Department of Education
Institute of Vocational Studies

Faculty Profile

Ms. Sapna Rani is a dedicated and experienced Lecturer of Hindi with 14 years of teaching experience in the field of education. She has been associated with the Institute of Vocational Studies since 2020 upto now, where she continues to contribute actively to teaching, academic development, and institutional activities. Prior to this, she served as a Lecturer at Rawal College of Education from 2013 to 2019. Along with teaching, she possesses excellent management and administrative skills. Currently, she is heading with important responsibilities such as Admission In-charge, Examination In-charge, and SEP In-charge of the D.El.Ed. programme. She is known for her confidence, boldness, dedication, and effective decision-making abilities in educational and administrative tasks. She has participated in several seminars, workshop, conference at National and international level. Her sincere approach, leadership qualities, and commitment to academic excellence make her a valuable member of the institution.