

Ms. Shailja Gupta, a dedicated Teacher Educator with B.Ed., M.Ed. and UGC-NET qualification, with experience in teaching English and contributing to academic and departmental activities. She has actively participated in faculty development programmes and workshops on inclusive education and technology integration, and has presented and published research papers on technology, social media, student participation, values and professional ethics. She has also contributed to institutional responsibilities, including magazine-related activities.