

Report on NSS Day Celebration at the Institute of Vocational Studies

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and spirit at the Institute of Vocational Studies on 26th September 2025. This annual event commemorates the foundation of NSS and emphasizes the importance of social service and community involvement. The day was marked by various activities aimed at promoting the ideals of volunteerism, social responsibility, and nation-building.

The celebration began with a formal inauguration ceremony at 10:00 AM in the presence of the Principal Dr Mandira Gupta and faculty members, NSS program officer, and students from various disciplines. The gathering was addressed by the Director, who highlighted the significance of NSS in shaping responsible citizens. She emphasized that volunteering not only helps in personal growth but also in contributing to the welfare of society.

The Principal also acknowledged the hard work and dedication of NSS volunteers throughout the year in carrying out social service activities both within and outside the campus.

1. Flag Hoisting Ceremony: The event commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony, followed by the singing of the NSS song. Students and faculty stood in solidarity, showcasing their commitment to the values .,NSS alumni, delivered an inspiring speech on the role of youth in nation-building.

2.. NSS Volunteer Acknowledgments: To recognize the outstanding contributions of NSS volunteers, the institute conducted an award ceremony. Several students were honoured for their dedication and consistent participation in NSS activities, including blood donation camps, environmental awareness programs, and rural development initiatives.

3 .Cultural Performances: A cultural program was organized to showcase the creativity and talents of NSS volunteers. The program included skits, dances, and musical performances that highlighted the importance of social causes like environmental conservation, women's empowerment, and health awareness. The performances were well-received by the audience and served as an engaging reminder of the various causes that the NSS supports.

The NSS Day celebration at the Institute of Vocational Studies was a resounding success. It provided a platform for students to reflect on the values of selfless service and civic responsibility. The event not only helped raise awareness about various social causes but also inspired many to engage in volunteer work for the betterment of society.

The institute remains committed to nurturing responsible, compassionate, and socially aware individuals who are dedicated to making a positive impact on their communities.

