

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 8th March, 2026

On 8th March, 2026, The Institute of Vocational Studies actively participated in the celebration of International Women's Day at Kartavya Path, New Delhi.

The programme was organised by the Ministry of Women and Child Development to honour the achievements of women and to promote awareness about women's empowerment, equality, dignity, and participation in nation-building. A group of enthusiastic female students from the Institute of Vocational Studies participated in the programme with great excitement and enthusiasm.

The event provided an inspiring platform for women and young girls to come together and celebrate their strength, achievements, and contribution to society. The participation of the students gave them an opportunity to witness a significant national-level programme and understand the importance of women's active role in the development of the country. The students participated with discipline, confidence, and a strong sense of responsibility, representing the Institute of Vocational Studies with pride.

The programme was graced by the presence of Smt. Rekha Gupta, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Delhi, whose presence added significance and inspiration to the occasion. Her participation encouraged the students and highlighted the importance of providing women with equal opportunities to learn, grow, lead, and contribute to society. The event also emphasised the need to create a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment where every woman can realise her potential.

The celebration focused on important values such as women's empowerment, education, self-confidence, equality, leadership, and social responsibility. The students gained valuable exposure by participating in the event and interacting with the atmosphere of a large public programme. It helped them understand that women's empowerment is not only about individual progress but also about creating positive changes in families, communities, and the nation.

The participation of the Institute of Vocational Studies students in the International Women's Day programme was a memorable and enriching experience. It motivated the students to become more confident, aware, responsible, and active members of society. Such programmes play an important role in encouraging young women to recognise their abilities and work towards achieving their goals.

The Institute of Vocational Studies appreciates the efforts of the Ministry of Women and Child Development in organising such an inspiring programme. The event successfully conveyed the message that empowered women are the foundation of a progressive and developed society. The participation of IVS students at Kartavya Path made the International Women's Day celebration meaningful, educational, and memorable for all.
