REPORT
“Puppet Making Activity”
20th February, 2026

Institute of Vocational Studies organized a Puppet Making Activity for students under the CCA in the guidance of Principal Ma'am. The activity was designed to foster creativity, teamwork and hands on learning, while also encouraging students to explore traditional art forms in a modern context. Students actively took part in activity and showcasing remarkable enthusiasm. They prepared different type of puppet by using coloured papers, threads, paints and other craft supplies. Faculty members supervised the activity, offering tips and techniques. Students worked in small groups, shared ideas and helped each other. Each group displayed unique ideas. The atmosphere was lively, filled with fun, creativity and collaboration.
