

Report on Shakti Walk at Kartavya Path,
New Delhi
(Under NSS Cell, IVS)

On the occasion of International Women's Day (08 March 2026), a special event named "Shakti Walk" was organized at Kartavya Path to celebrate and promote women empowerment. The event aimed to highlight the strength, achievements, and important role of women in society. Women and students from different institution and fields across Delhi participated enthusiastically in this inspiring walk.

Students and faculty members from Institute of Vocational Studies also took part in this event. The participation from the college was guided by our faculty member Nahid Ma'am, who encouraged the students to be part of this meaningful initiative. The students who participated from our college included Kanishka, Suman, Bhawna, and Anuradha. The Shakti Walk was organized to spread awareness about women's rights, equality, and empowerment. Participants walked together to show unity and support for women in every field of life. The event brought together women from different backgrounds such as education, social work, and other professional fields, making it a powerful symbol of collective strength and encouragement.

- During the event, the Rekha Gupta, also addressed the gathering. In her speech, she highlighted the importance of women's participation in every field and encouraged young girls to be confident and independent. She emphasized that empowering women leads to the development of society and the nation. The event was very successful and inspiring for all participants. It helped in spreading the message that women are strong, capable, and deserve equal opportunities in every field. As a recognition of participation and enthusiasm, we were also honored with a medal, which made the experience even more memorable and encouraging for us.

- Overall, the Shakti Walk at Kartavya Path was a wonderful and motivating event. It strengthened the message of women empowerment and gave students from the Institute of Vocational Studies a valuable opportunity to participate in a meaningful celebration of women's strength and achievements.
- Happy Women's Day – Shakti Walk
