SGRC Feedback Report (Academic Session 2025–26)

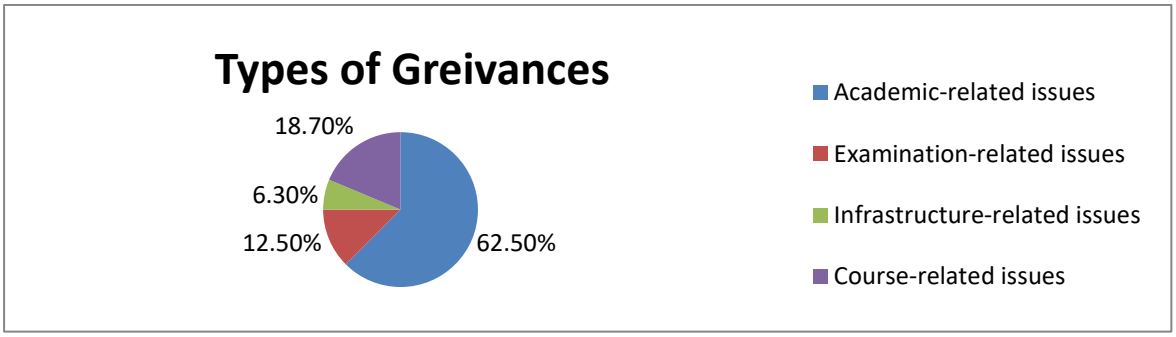

Under IQAC Cell, Grievance Redressal and Welfare Committee of IVS was formed to maintain a healthy and friendly atmosphere for the students and teachers.

The objectives of the Grievance Redressal and Welfare Committee are as follows:

1. Upholding the dignity of the institution by ensuring a stress-free atmosphere.
2. Encouraging the students to express their grievances freely and frankly, without any fear.
3. Advising staff to be affectionate and supportive towards the students.
4. Ragging and sexual harassment in any form is strictly prohibited in and outside the campus.

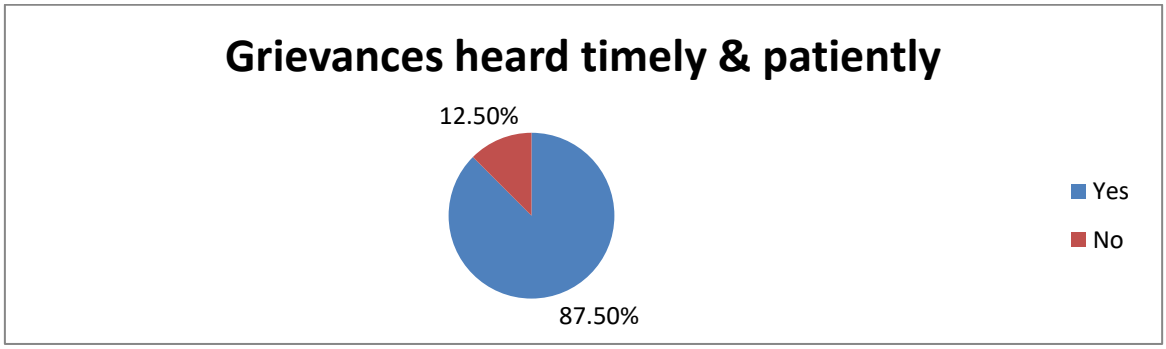

A feedback has been collected from the students of B.Ed. session 2025–26 to improve upon the working of SGRC and integrate the changes in the next academic session. The following is the detailed analysis of the data collected.

1. The type of grievance faced during the B.Ed. course

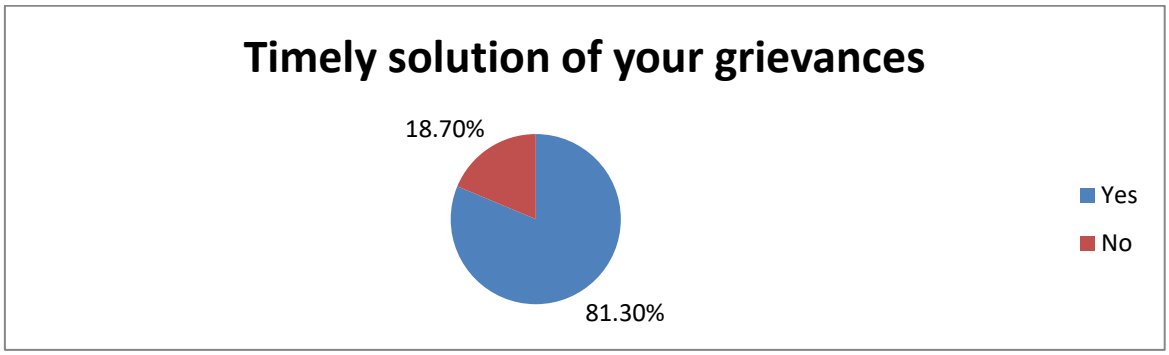

Analysis: Around 62.5% of the students faced academic-related issues, 12.5% faced examination-related issues, 6.3% faced infrastructure-related problems and 18.7% reported course-related issues during the B.Ed. course.

2. Was your grievance heard timely and patiently?

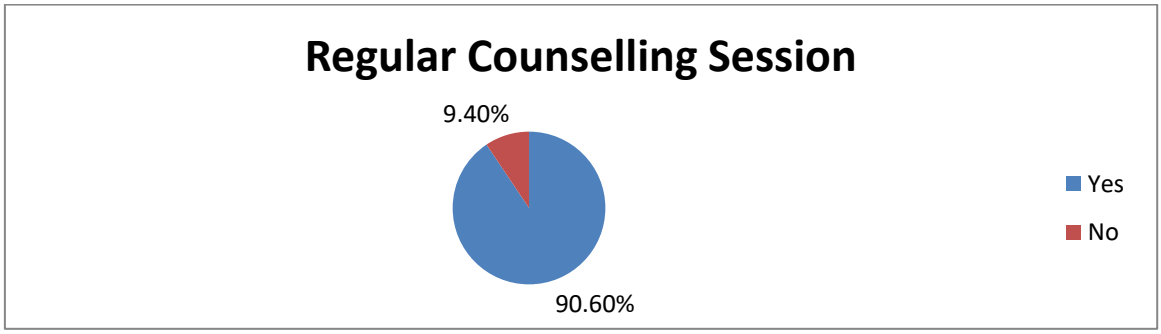

Analysis: 87.5% of students agreed that their issues and problems were heard patiently. Students were given sufficient time to put forward their concerns and timely solutions were provided. IVS makes sure that students are provided with productive solutions immediately.

3. Were you provided with the timely solution of your grievance?

Analysis: 81.3% of students marked that they were provided with timely solutions. Grievances were heard by the committee in-charge and effective solutions were provided to the students after discussion with the Principal, wherever required.

4. Were there regular counselling sessions in your institute?

Analysis: Regular counselling sessions are organized at IVS; therefore, 90.6% of the students agreed that they attended counselling sessions at IVS. The appointed professional student counsellor conducted regular sessions during the academic session 2025–26.

The Grievance Committee is working rigorously for the welfare of the students and staff at IVS.
